NOTICE OF SECURITY ZONE

Notice is hereby given of a Security Zone under Title 33 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 165.7(a), which may not be entered without the prior permission of the U. S. Coast Guard Captain of the Port Honolulu.

The Coast Guard has established a temporary Security Zone on waters of Kailua Bay off the Eastern Coast of Oahu, Hawaii. The Security Zone includes all waters in Kailua Bay to the west of a line connecting two points beginning at the shoreline of Kapoho Point and thence westward at a bearing of 222°T to the shoreline at Namala Place road. In addition, the Security Zone includes the adjacent channel beginning at Kapoho Point to a point along the channel approximately 150-yards south of the N. Kalaheo Avenue Road Bridge. Yellow buoys will be placed as visual aids for mariners and the public to approximate the zone.

For navigational purposes, this zone will include the waters of the channel beginning at point 21°25' N, 157°45' W, then extending the channel way to 21°25.6' N, 157°44.6' W, then all the waters extending to 21°25.5' N, 157°44.4' W (Kapoho Point) with all the waters to the west of a straight line to 21°25' N, 157°44.6' W (Namala Place), and the extending back to the original point 21°25' N, 157°45' W. This security zone extends from the surface of the water to the ocean floor. The general public will be permitted to transit the Security Zone as necessary but will not be permitted to loiter.

The Security Zone will be in effect from 10:00 a.m. HST on December 21, 2010 to 8:00 p.m. HST on January 5, 2011, unless canceled earlier by the Captain of the Port. This Security Zone is necessary to safeguard the President of the United States, members of his official party, and senior government officials.

Entry into this security zone is prohibited unless authorized by the Captain of the Port.

PENALTY:

33 CFR 165.33 prohibits any unauthorized person or vessel from entering or remaining in this Security Zone. Any person entering the Security Zone without the permission of the Captain of the Port is subject to a civil penalty of not more than $32,500 for each violation or a criminal penalty resulting in imprisonment of not more than 25 years and a fine of not more than $250,000. Offending vessels may also be seized and held liable for any monetary assessments.
